Colours are awarded for

- exemplary conduct to SAPSA,
- exemplary conduct to practical shooting in general,
- participation in international competition not recognised with national colours,

Colours may be awarded for one single action, one match or tournament, or over a long period of time.

Colours may be awarded more than once to any one person for any of the above reasons.

The awarding of colours must be approved by majority vote of the Council.

The colours itself will be the SAPSA emblem/logo in colour, worn on a dark blue blazer at official functions. Only the pocket badge will be awarded, the recipient will have to obtain the blazer at own cost.

SAPSA colours for team participation will be a shooting shirt, using the colours of the SA flag, with the SAPSA emblem/logo on the front and South Africa on the back. Further specifics of the shirt to be left to the team and the occasion, but approved by Council. Pants possibly khaki in short or long.
